COURSE INFORMATION

Louisiana State University
Fall 2019
Section 004
35 Allen Hall
MWF 1:30-2:20pm

Course Overview

Course Description

This course provides a university-level introduction to international politics by examining interactions between states, reasons behind conflict, foreign policy and diplomatic communication. In addition, this course covers the traditional main tenets and theories of the sub-field, including realism, liberalism and balance of power arrangements. Other topics to be reviewed include political psychology and the role of international bodies. While international politics covers a wide-ranging area of research & study, this course is designed to provide the student with a firm grasp and understanding of the core issues of the sub-field, while also highlighting some of the emerging areas of current research, methods, and modes of thinking. Course instruction involves discussion of broad themes and topics, while also highlighting detailed information pertaining to case studies and individual interactions between states.

LSU Learning Competency Statement for the Social Sciences

LSU graduates will demonstrate an understanding of the informing factors of global interdependence, including economic forces, political dynamics, and cultural and linguistic difference.

Required Reading

1) The textbook listed below is required for this course. It can be found at university and area bookstores. The textbook is also available online for purchase at various online bookstores and websites.

Mingst, K.A. and Arreguin-Toft, I.M. (2016). Essentials of International Relations. W.W. Norton. 7th Edition, (ISBN: 978-0393283402)

2) Some topics and class meetings for this course will require additional readings or notes from various academic sources selected by the instructor. These materials are listed by date on the Topics and Readings Schedule, and will be uploaded to the course Moodle site in .pdf format for download. It is the student's responsibility to access and review the appropriate materials for the assigned class period. If the documents are unavailable or cannot be accessed for any reason, inform the instructor.

3) Students will also be required to keep up-to-date with the news and current events, as it pertains to topics in international politics. News articles will be selected by the instructor and posted to the course Moodle site throughout the semester for review by students. These news articles are assigned reading, as content from the articles will form the basis for quiz material.

Graded Items

Composition of Course Grade

Scores for each graded item are based on 100 points (range of 0-100), and weighted according to the table below.

Graded Item	Percentage of Grade (Weight)
Attendance	15%
Participation (in-class)	5%
Quizzes (4 x 5%)	20%
Exam #1	20%
Exam #2	20%
Final Exam	20%

Attendance

Attendance is mandatory in this course, and student roll will be taken regularly for class meetings. This course policy is in conjunction with a University-wide effort to bolster student attendance, as research has shown that students who attend class regularly have improved performance scores. Attendance scores are based on 100 total points. Each student is allowed three unexcused absences before it affects their attendance score. After three unexcused absences, your attendance score drops 10 points for each unexcused absence. See table below:

Unexcused Absences	Attendance Score	Unexcused Absences	Attendance Score
3 or less	100	8	50
4	90	9	40
5	80	10	30
6	70	11	20
7	60	12	10

Participation (in-class)

Student participation in class discussions help to facilitate learning and is a required component of this course. This includes comments related to lectures and assigned readings, as well as appropriate questions that contribute to the discussion. Students are expected to contribute to in class discussion via general comments and questions on an occasional basis. I don't expect you to contribute to every class discussion, but I expect you to do so periodically.

Quizzes (4)

Students will take four in-class quizzes on dates noted by the instructor. Content for quizzes will be taken from news articles posted on Moodle. Quizzes will consist of ten multiple-choice questions each. You will need a small scantron for quizzes.

Exams (3)

Content for exams are taken from in-class lectures and assigned readings (textbook chapters & other readings). The format for exams will be multiple choice. The exams are non-cumulative (see more below).

-Exam #1-

This exam will test for content covered during the first third of the course. The format for this exam will be multiple choice. Exam #1 will be administered in-class on September 27, 2019. You will need a small scantron for this exam.

-Exam #2-

This exam will test for content covered during the middle third of the course. The format for this exam will be multiple choice. Exam #1 will be administered in-class on November 1, 2019. You will need a small scantron for this exam.

-Final Exam-

This exam will test for content covered during the final third of the course. This exam is not cumulative. The format for this exam will be multiple choice. The Final Exam will be administered on Saturday, December 14, 2019 from 7:30am-9:30am. The location for the Final Exam will be the normal classroom. You will need a small scantron for this exam.

*Note: The Final Exam date and time is set by the University and cannot be moved, modified, or made-up, unless qualifying circumstances are met and approved by the HSS Dean's Office.

Grade Calculation

A graded item is an exam, quiz, attendance, etc. Each graded item is based on a 100 point total (0-100). Your score for each graded item is the number of points received. Final grades for students will be calculated by multiplying their score for each graded item times (x) the weighted percentage for each graded item. The weighted graded items are then added together and a final grade given based on 100 point totals.

SAMPLE FOR FINAL GRADE

Graded Item	% of Grade (Weight)	Score (Example)
Attendance	15%	90	13.5
Participation (in-class)	5%	100	5
Quizzes (4 x 7.5%)	30%	85	25.5
Midterm Exam	25%	95	23.75

Final Exam	25%	83	20.75
FINAL GRADE			88.5 B

Grading Policies

Absences, Missed Exams and Make-ups

Allowance for the excusing of missed class and make-ups of missed exams & quizzes will be in accordance with University policy, which outlines valid reasons for such occurrences. Valid reasons include, but are not limited to, serious illness, death in the immediate family, religious observances, and scheduled trips for academic & athletic purposes. Proper documentation is required for any excused absence or missed examination period. If possible, let the instructor know before missing class. Excused absences do not hurt participation grades. If you miss a class lecture, feel free to obtain notes from a classmate. You can then ask me specific questions concerning the material, but I cannot provide you with notes or presentation slides.

If you miss a quiz or exam, contact the instructor immediately so that the situation can be evaluated and arrangements made, if applicable. If you have documentation that notes your excused absence, email me a scanned version or photo of the document. In cases where make-ups are allowed, you will be given an alternate quiz/make-up exam different from the in-class version to preserve academic integrity. Note that the Final Exam schedule is set by the University and cannot be amended, meaning that make-ups are not allowed for this exam and you cannot take the exam at any other time/date (without official approval from the Dean’s Office). For complete information on the University’s attendance and exam make-up policy, see the Regulations section of the LSU General Catalog.

General Grading Policy

Grades are based on the academic performance of the student, as it pertains to assigned coursework and examinations, and in accordance to the grading scale, weighting, and policies listed in this syllabus. Any questions or concerns about graded work are welcome, and should be directed toward the instructor in-person during office hours or by appointment.

Grading Scale

Grading for this course will be consistent with the plus/minus grading scale adopted by the University, and as outlined in the LSU General Catalog.

Letter grade	Score
A+	100-97.00	A	96.99-94.00	A-	93.99-90.00
B+	89.99-87.00	B	86.99-84.00	B-	83.99-80.00
C+	79.99-77.00	C	76.99-74.00	C-	73.99-70.00
D+	69.99-67.00	D	66.99-64.00	D-	63.99-60.00
F	<60

Course Policies & Expectations

Note on Participation and Preparation

Students are expected to come to class on-time, prepared and ready to engage in material comprehension, as well as ready to participate in classroom discussions concerning the week's topics. This means that assigned readings should be completed before each class meeting.

Students should frequently check the course Moodle page in order to access additional readings or supplemental materials posted by the instructor at an on-going basis.

Diversity

Diversity is fundamental to LSU's mission and the University is committed to creating and maintaining a living and learning environment that embraces individual difference. Cultural inclusion is of highest priority.

Special Accommodations

LSU is committed to providing adequate accommodations to all students with documented and approved disabilities. As per University policy, special accommodations approved by LSU Disability Services will be incorporated into individual student learning, and will remain confidential. Eligible students should contact Disability Services (115 Johnson Hall, 225-578-5919), so that official approval can be processed. Eligible students should notify the instructor as soon as possible and provide official documentation.

General Statement on Academic Integrity

Louisiana State University adopted the Commitment to Community in 1995 to set forth guidelines for student behavior both inside and outside of the classroom. The Commitment to Community charges students to maintain high standards of academic and personal integrity. All students are expected to read and be familiar with the LSU Code of Student Conduct and Commitment to Community, found online at www.lsu.edu/saa. It is your responsibility as a student at LSU to know and understand the academic standards for our community.

Students who are suspected of violating the Code of Conduct will be referred to the Office of Student Advocacy and Accountability. For undergraduate students, a first academic violation could result in a zero grade on the assignment or failing the class and disciplinary probation until graduation. For a second academic violation, the result could be suspension from LSU. For graduate students, suspension is the appropriate outcome for the first offense.

Note that academic dishonesty includes (but is not limited to) viewing other students' answers during quizzes/exams, accessing & viewing testing materials from previous courses, sharing notes through group email chains, note swapping websites, et cetera. I have no problem with you obtaining notes from an individual classmate on an occasional basis when you miss class. But this must not be on a regularly recurring basis and may not be done through any type of collective group effort.

Plagiarism

Students will refrain from plagiarizing the academic property of others and to utilize appropriate citation method for all coursework. For this course, it is recommended that you use the APSA citation style. Ignorance of the citation method is not an excuse for academic misconduct. Remember there is a difference between paraphrasing and quoting, and how to properly cite each respectively.

Technology Use

Laptop use in class is for note-taking, research purposes and academic-centered use. This privilege is contingently permitted, but may be rescinded at any time. It is an obvious concern that laptop use is a distraction to students during lectures, and I encourage you to keep electronic use to a minimum. Sustained abuse of laptop privileges may result in punitive adjustments to a student's participation grade when it becomes apparent to the instructor that technology is being used for purposes other than academic learning. Cell phone use is not allowed and should be avoided. Likewise, use of other technological devices is prohibited, unless approved by the instructor. Students may not record lectures or class discussions using any type of electronic device. Concerns related to this or any policy listed above should be discussed with the instructor, as amicable modifications will be based on genuine needs of the student, as it relates to learning in a university environment.

Communication and Conduct

All communication with the instructor and all written work should be prepared using formal, standard language. In other words, do not use "texting" language or other abbreviated jargon to communicate your thoughts and ideas for this class.

Additionally, all students are required to conduct themselves appropriately at all times and in a professional, courteous manner. This means it is necessary for you to treat others with respect and courtesy. Talking while the instructor or another student is talking will not be tolerated.

Conduct that is disruptive and/or not respectful of an academic environment will also not be tolerated. Severe violation of these guidelines will be reported to the LSU Office for the Dean of Students.

General Statements

If in doubt about any policy, requirement, or content-related matter, please contact the instructor. Also, it would greatly benefit students to read and become familiar with the LSU General Catalog. This catalog contains the official policies and regulations of the University. I am more than willing to provide additional information or explanation to questions related to course content posed by students. Questions or concerns may be addressed in-class, through email, in-person during office hours, or by appointment. I will respond to emails within a timely manner, but allow up to 24 hours for responses. I am also available to meet before/after class to discuss questions or concerns.

LSU provides each student with a University-affiliated email (ex. jsmith4@lsu.edu) which you should have already activated and currently use. If you have not activated your University email account, you should do so immediately, as all course communication will be sent to this email address.

Check your email, check the course Moodle page, and check the Course Calendar (see below) on a regular basis. Be proactive!

Integrated Learning

Integrated learning allows students to make simple connections among ideas and experiences and across disciplines and perspectives. The LSU Integrative Learning Core (ILC) curriculum is designed to develop student abilities to transfer their learning to new situations, and demonstrate a sense of self as a learner. A fundamental goal of the ILC is to foster students' practical and intellectual capacities associated with integrative learning in preparation for high competence and functionality in their post-baccalaureate careers. This course fulfills the BOR Area of Social/Behavioral Sciences and provides students experience with the ILC proficiency of Global Learning.

The instructor reserves the right to amend any of the policies, requirements, or statements pertaining to this course/syllabus. Any modification of the syllabus or class schedule (for unexpected events such as emergencies, extenuating circumstances, etc.) will be conveyed to student either in-class or via email, with as much advance notice as reasonably possible.

There are two appendices to this syllabus:

- 1) Lecture Topics, which provides topical information that is to be discussed during the course, along with assigned reading chapters. It is your responsibility to keep with where we are in terms of topics and lecture material.
- 2) Course Calendar, which list the dates for: class meetings, exams & quizzes, university holidays, and other notations needed by the student.

Have a great semester and Geaux Tigers.
